Participate in the "Global Young Reformers- Workshop Wittenberg"

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today we invite you to a unique experience: From 22 August to 04 September 2015, the global encounter "Workshop Wittenberg" will bring together young Lutherans sent by member churches of the Lutheran World Federation and students of theology, church music, religious education or diaconship sent by Lutheran faculties.

Within a two-week program, participants from more than 80 countries will share and learn, decide together on themes and local and regional initiatives in the light of the reformation anniversary 2017.

They will also visit parishes in the hosting Evangelical Lutheran Church of Central Germany and social-diaconal projects.

The Agenda of the "Workshop Wittenberg" includes the following highlights:

- Worship Service in the Schlosskirche Wittenberg
- Thematic city tour "Following the stories of reformation in Wittenberg" in international teams
- Comprehensive introduction to the mission and work of The Lutheran World Federation
- Further development of 10 Themes of the Global Young Reformers Network
- Thematical Days: "To be Lutheran means to be....theological....ecumenical...political"
- Youth Worship and Youth Liturgy
- Weekend program in German Lutheran parishes, discovering the realities of being Lutheran today
- Social-diaconal field trip in the region of Reformation
- Project development of "Living reformation projects" leading up to 2017
